PORTRAYAL OF A SCENE from the motion picture "Inn of the Sixth Happiness" will be the theme of a Desert Circus parade float, an entry of the Community Church Playschool. Taylor Dunlevie portrays the missionary teacher, Gladys Aylward, known to the Chinese as "The Small Woman," and Scott Dunlevie and Liz Mason will portray two of the children. The actual sound tape from the marching song in the picture has been sent to the school by 20th Century Fox Studios in Hollywood, and the children at the school are learning to sing the song. The parade is scheduled for Saturday, April 4, and will march down Palm Canyon Drive at 10 a.m. (Desert Sun Photo)

Cost of Living Down--But Jump Predicted Next

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Living costs dipped slightly in February because of some lower food prices, the government reported today.

The Labor Department's consumer price index slipped one-tenth of a point from its January reading of 123.8 to a February level of 123.7. The index is based on 100 as a 1947-49 average.

AT THIS LEVEL the index was 1 per cent higher than a year ago, the smallest 12-month increase in three years but still the highest February reading ever.

Only small changes in the index, probably upward, were predicted for the next few months.

Food prices last month fell 0.7 per cent. Principal reductions were in pork, eggs and coffee.

HIGHER PRICES were reported for household fuels, some fresh vegetables, medical care, gasoline and barber and beauty shop services.

The report meant a pay cut of one cent an hour for about 80,000 aircraft workers whose wages are tied by contract to the price index.

The department said take-home pay and purchasing power of factory workers set a February record, but was somewhat lower than January and below the all-time high of late 1956.

Weather

Teen Pair Safe On Salton Sea

INDIO — Two vacationing teenagers were found safe this morning after an all-night search on choppy Salton Sea by deputies and volunteers from two counties failed to locate the pair.

Combined air-sea search teams found the two — Mike Hoffman, 19, and Charlene Gargaro, 19, both of Alhambra — shortly after dawn.

JAMES KIRBY, SR., spotted the small open motorboat approximately a mile and a half from shore, and directed a small boat — piloted by his son, James Kirby, Jr., to the drifting craft.

IKE'S STEEL PLEA: 'DON'T HIKE PRICE'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower strongly appealed to the steel industry today to avoid a price increase which might lead to an inflationary wage-price spiral.

The President told his news conference that normally it was not the function of the federal government to inject itself into collective bargaining. But he said he could not keep silent in the face of what a reporter described as minor labor plans for a steel strike this summer.

EISENHOWER SAID it would be completely out of character for him to wash his hands of this issue like a Pontius Pilate.

He said if the United States was going to continue on the road of a progressive, free economy, the price of steel must not go up and thus lead to demands for higher prices.

The President made no direct reference to steelworkers dropping wage increase demands.

HE SAID THE impending wage-price picture in steel made it necessary for labor and management to exercise the fullest qualities of economic statesmanship in dealing with their differences.

The President's 10th meeting with newsmen this year provided these other highlights:

—The government this afternoon will make an extensive scientific report on the results of Project Argus. This was the project in which three small atomic bombs were exploded at an altitude of more than 300 miles late last August and early September, casting a brief shield of electronic radiation around much of the globe.

—HE EXPRESSED the hope that Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, after a period of recuperation in Florida will be able, as he put it, to return to work in one capacity or another.

Workers feared that James McIntosh and Claude Wilkinson, both of Oklahoma City, were crushed under the wreckage or drowned in water that filled the basement of the huge meat packing plant. Their deaths would raise the count to seven killed.

A spokesman at the plant said there was little doubt that the men were dead.

PEEVISH TELLER ROUTS PAIR OF BANK BANDITS

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Two would-be robbers handed Bank of America teller Filamene Miller a note Tuesday telling her to "put $100 in a sack or we'll blow up the bank."

"What is this—a joke?" she snapped. "Get out of here this minute."

The robbers grinned sheepishly, said "All right," and fled.

Moreover, since one of them had signed the note, police had trouble tracking them. The two foiled desperadoes—aged 19 and 23—burst into tears when apprehended.

THEY WERE ALSO hungry, having gone without food since 1 p.m. Tuesday, when they took the small motorboat out into the sea. State Ranger Carl Whitfield, on duty at Salton Sea State Park, called in both Riverside and Imperial County sheriff's departments at about 7:30 p.m. last night when the couple failed to return to shore.

Holm Files Candidacy for School Board

Second Villager To Seek Election To Two Positions

Palm Springs landscaping contractor Paul C. Holm today announced his candidacy for election to the Board of Education.

Holm is the second Villager to file candidacy papers for the election scheduled for May 19. Two board seats are up for balloting this year.

School district officials also reported that Thursday is the deadline for registration of voters for this board election.

A NATIVE OF Denmark, Holm, 39, has been a Palm Springs home owner since 1954. He is married and has four children, two of whom attend Palm Springs schools.

He was brought to this country in 1946 by Thor Knudsen, operator of Knudsen's Creamery in Los Angeles, where Holm worked for four years. He came to the Coachella Valley in 1951 as ranch manager for the Coachella Valley Feed Yard, where he also worked four years.

RECALLING HIS own existence under a totalitarian occupation in his native country, Holm explained that he believes "our children are in need of a better and stricter basic education than they are getting at the present time," so that they won't undergo the same experience.

"I believe that our school philosophy and moral attitude is good but that the ways of teaching our children morals and philosophy needs improvement," Holm said in his candidacy application sent to County Schools Supt. Ray Johnson.

Holm's candidacy application followed that of Everett Ball, Village advertising agency operator, who is seeking one or two board seats now held by Frank Muller and Don Williams.

Neither incumbent has yet filed candidacy applications for re-election.

DE GAULLE REJECTED any suggestions that France was looking for advantages in Germany similar to those which the Soviets were seeking.

"It is not our policy," he said.

The present day Germany does not menace us in any way. It constitutes one of the essential elements of the life of Europe and the entire world."

He said he had received assurances from Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of West Germany and Italian Premier Antonio Segni that their policies were the same as those of France.

FRANKFORT, Ky. — UPI Gov.

—Rescue teams dug through tons of debris without hope today of finding alive the two men missing in a violent explosion at Wilson meat packing plant.

Five persons were killed and 16 injured, five critically, Tuesday when a heavy ice-making machine on the seventh floor ripped loose and plunged to the basement, tearing loose ammonia lines that enveloped workers in a fog of deadly gas.

Workers feared that James Mc-

Intosh and Claude Wilkinson, both of Oklahoma City, were crushed under the wreckage or drowned in water that filled the basement of the huge meat packing plant. Their deaths would raise the count to seven killed.

K.T. Stevens, 'Kind Sir' Star, Says 'Acting Full-Time Job'

By GEORGE LAINE
"Acting," said K. T. Stevens, between mouthfuls on a cold Turkey on white bread sandwich at Howard Manor yesterday, "is a full time job."

That's why the beauteous blonde, currently co-starred with John Holland in Norma Krasna's "Kind Sir" at Palm Springs Playhouse, is virtually coming out of "retirement" to do the role for Mike Ferrall's drama on tour.

"I'm pretty busy, even without acting," K. T. relaxed, sipping at a glass of iced coffee. "I'm a wife, mother and housekeeper now."

MARRIED—SINCE 1946, in fact—to Hugh Marlowe (the Ellery Queen of the TV series of the same name), K. T. has a pair of sons, a pair of boxers and the amply proportioned Mr. Marlowe to "look out for."

The fact that some of her acting went by the boards when K. T. took up her wifely duties in full hasn't dismayed her in the least. "I make a holiday out of my acting now," she said.

Her own experience has increased her amazement of the "tremendous job Mike and Marlene (Ferrall) are doing at the Playhouse."

IN ADDITION TO producing and directing a new play each week, K. T. pointed out, the pair also manage to act in most of their productions and still run a house that is "a real home."

If their efforts sometimes miss the mark, K. T. explained, the reason is simply the monumental task they take on for themselves.

"Production is, even more than acting, a full-time assignment," she said. "So is direction."

"And yet those two," she inclined her head eastward—in the general direction of the Playhouse, "not only turn out plays that are as good as anything stock companies anywhere are doing, they also turn in excellent performances whenever they cast themselves into their plays."

BOTH, SHE pointed out, are playing in "Dear Sir" as well as handling the producing and directing chores. And both, she feels, are doing "a great job."

"They played a married couple," K. T. said, wiping a smear of mayonnaise from the corner of her mouth. She broke into a chuckle.

"They're adorable," she chorused. "Once, in the play, Marian says 'shut up' to Mike—not mean, you know, but the way a wife or husband would say it to the other. It breaks me up every time I see them."

"Another thing that was really funny was, in rehearsal, when Marian and I are facing each other in a certain scene. Neither of us have a line, but we have to animate the place and I'll be darned if we didn't just stand there and do exactly the same gestures and motions back and forth at one another. It was like seeing yourself in a mirror and we both just roared at each other."

THE CLOWNING will be pretty well out of the way now that the play has opened, but that doesn't mean there are no laughs in the Krasna story. There are, K. T. declares, enough for the most avid humor seekers.

The angular blonde isn't totally relaxing during her one-week stint here.

"I'm getting around," she said, sliding the empty plate into the waiting hands of a Howard Manor waiter. "Do you know I haven't been here for three years?"

"I used to spend a lot of time here when I was a teen-ager. I remember when Frank Bogert was publicity man for the El Mirador. Now he's mayor of the town. Omigawd, does time fly."

MR. AND MRS. Marlowe and family tried to move to New York three years ago, but the switch failed and K. T. is just as pleased as she can be about it. It gives her more time for family when she's out here and that doesn't make her mad at all. She is still thoroughly enmeshed in theater—last year she went on the road with the traveling company of "Tender Trap" which she described as "a three-ring circus"—and so is her husband. In fact, he's so completely wrapped up with assignments that he missed her opening night here.

"He'll be in Thursday," K. T. sighed, "and I didn't mind any way."

"Opening nights are horrible. I'd just as soon have no one around on opening nights."

She mused for a moment and then quickly added: "Except the audience."

Ballad Singer, Harpist Present An Informal Afternoon of Music

By EVERETT L. BALL

A curiously casual, and frequently charming, afternoon of music was presented by ballad singer Salli Terri, and harpist Dorothy Remsen, Sunday in the Jewish Community Center.

The two talented young women appeared together in a wide range of songs and Miss Remsen played three groups of harp solos with clarity, skill, perfect control and occasionally even a projected passion which one scarcely associates with harp playing, or harp music.

PARTICULARLY interesting were "Two Pictures" by the French composer Marcel Tournier—the limp, harmonious, lingering legato, subtle echo of reflections of moonlight on the water—all perfectly expressed in the impressionistic tonal quality of the instrument.

Miss Remsen also performed the spirituals and the "Lass from the Low Country," identified by the singer as an American ballad.

THE ORGANIZATION of the program, we feel, could have been given more thought so that there might have been better continuity and climaxes from work to work.

A solo artist performing in concert, in our view, cannot read from a musical score and achieve the identification with her music necessary to project it fully to the audience. Songs of the kind interpreted—in many cases very sensitively—by Miss Terri, come from the heart and soul of peoples, folk songs eloquently portraying love, loneliness, the joys and worries of family relationships.

To project these qualities through song, the artist should have her material so deeply embedded within that it flows out as a personal, original, private and inevitable expression. Almost at no time did we feel that Miss Terri had so absorbed her music. Nor did we completely appreciate her own praise about the songs she was going to sing; her praise and joy and excitement over the forthcoming number should perhaps have been contained for the song itself.

HOWEVER, MISS Terri has an attractive voice and an enthusiasm combined with vocal control. Above all, her voice holds a tinge—an intimation—of the ballad singer's peculiar timbre which gives a kind of haunting quality to much of her singing. This was most appealing. We understand that Miss Terri has made several fine records with guitar accompaniment, and undoubtedly she can expect a promising career.

The dramatic, poignant "Requiem," by Giuseppe Verdi, will be performed in the High School Auditorium, April 12, at 8:15 p.m., by a distinguished group of singers, the Palm Springs Civic Chorus, and Civic Orchestra under the direction of Harry Tomlinson. This monumental work will conclude the musical season of the Palm Springs Music Society.

Leathernecks
From Pendleton
Train in Desert

TWENTYNINE PALMS — Some 5,500 Leathernecks from the First Marine Division at Camp Pendleton moved into a three-day training maneuver at the Marine Base here this week.

The exercise, Operation DEST-EX, is a maneuver designed to exercise an infantry regiment and supporting units in planning, training and conducting offensive and defensive operations in a desert area.

Units of Regimental Landing Team-5 are currently "advancing" on Twentynine Palms in a simulated attack against aggressor forces.

Regimental units are supported by tanks and amphibious tractors in a motorized thrust across the desert to destroy the hypothetical enemy force.

Bars Down

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The U.S. Sixth Army has closed down four of its six prison stockades in eight Western states in the past year.

Col. Harold Davenport, provost marshal, said Army standards have been raised to the point where it is now less likely to accept trouble-makers and more likely to discharge "deadwood."

Local Pastor
Transferred to National City

Darrell C. Mayberry, pastor of the Palm Springs Seventh-day Adventist Church has been transferred to an associate pastorate of the Paradise Valley Sanitarium Church in National City, it was announced today. This church has a membership of 800, and is one of 11 churches serving the San Diego area.

The Adventist pastor has served the local congregation for the past year and a half. Previous to his appointment to the Palm Springs church, he held pastorates in Blythe and San Diego.

A graduate of La Sierra College in Arlington, he was ordained to the Adventist ministry in 1958.

Pastor Mayberry is responsible for the formation here of a youth club for boys and girls between the ages of nine and 15.

The appointment of a new pastor is still pending.

New Recreation Law Passes First Hurdle

A bill co-authored by Assemblyman Lee Backstrand of Riverside County, authorizing the board of supervisors to open up bodies of water owned by public agencies to fishing and other recreational uses, has passed the lower house and is now up for consideration in the senate committee.

This will open up Lake Mathews to fishing, Backstrand declared, "if the bill becomes law and authorization is given by the board of supervisors. The opening of this and other possible recreational facilities owned by public agencies in the county will be a boon to sportsmen of Southern California."

The measure authorizes the board of supervisors of a county wherein a body of water owned by a governmental agency is located to request that the water and surrounding area be opened to fishing and other recreational uses, provided it does not affect the purity of the water. It requires that the state, or other governmental agencies owning the property, either open the area or submit the matter to the vote of its constituents and open it if a majority of the voters approve.

Cathedral City Building Permits Valued at $20,606

CATHEDRAL CITY — Building permits for $20,606 worth of new construction were issued here this week by the County Building Department's Palm Desert office.

Permits for the week were issued to:

Imperial Motors, 68-390 Highway 111, sign, $200; H. Park, 820 Gros Street, dwelling, $7,322; M. Prose, 34-073 Corregidor, dwelling, $5,900; Charles J. Griffin, 39-061 Bel Air, addition, $720.

J. H. Kindleburger, Pecos Road, swimming pool, $3,800; Cy Ostad, 67-994 Highway 111, garage, $2,100; L. Powell, 36-333 Skyway, porch, $1,404.

Favors Renting Mowers

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — The power mower that lies dormant in the winter months causes as much trouble as the automobile that goes unused.

"Without periodic starting you are bound to find trouble ahead in the spring," said T. M. Hoxsey, of Tucson, Ariz., who rents out power mowers and claimed it's less trouble in the long run to rent one than to buy one.

MORTON KALLIS of Chicago, one of the directors of the Hotel Tropicana in Las Vegas and a frequent visitor to Palm Springs, was surprised while dining at the Neptune Restaurant on the Tropicana when Johnny Mathis and His Harmonica Gang called him on stage to play his harmonica solo and do a dance. Morton is in the printing business in Chicago and owns a beautiful silver rifle, now on display in the lobby of the Tropicana, which formerly belonged to Tom Mix. Kallis is now in Palm Springs.

Your Car And The Law

CRACKDOWN
The campaign against reckless driving in California has now been launched.

The Department of Motor Vehicles is at this moment summoning for hearings hundreds of drivers whose records show they are "inelligent operators" according to a "count" formula that works like this:

For professional drivers/operators of commercial vehicles, such as trucks and buses): Five or more convictions for moving violations in the last 12 months.

For nonprofessionals (drivers of cars for pleasure or incidental business purposes): Four or more convictions.

CHANCES ARE that most of your hearings now being scheduled will result in suspension of licenses.

"In most instances," says a directive to the driver improvement section of DMV, "a minimum suspension of five to ten days will be recommended."

Ordinarily, the five-day suspension will be ordered against the commercial, or professional driver, and 10 days for the nonprofessional. The logic of this is:

TO THE professional, whose very livelihood depends on his ability and eligibility to continue to drive, a five-day suspension is a far greater penalty than is a ten-day suspension for the pleasure car driver. Without his license, the truck or bus driver cannot work at his job. The pleasure driver, on the other hand, presumably would suffer no economic loss, but only inconvenience, through the loss of his license.

And the reasoning behind the differential in the number of violations allowed before penalties to the professional driver, is that a trucker or bus operator will drive anywhere from 10 to 50 times more miles than will the nonprofessional driver.

THE MEN WHO are actually executing this crackdown on habitual bad drivers are called driver improvement analysts. The De-

AUTHENTIC MEXICAN dances figured prominently in the Mexico Fiesta program presented by students at Cathedral City School for their parents. A Mexican-style dinner, reports, murals, paintings and songs also made up portions of the program with all of the students wearing costumes of south-of-the-border land. The school's cafeteria, where the festival was held, was decorated with Mexican pottery and jewelry and placed on display by the students. (Desert Sun Photo)

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—General Manager Buzzie Bavasi of the Los Angeles Dodgers said today that outspoken Don Zimmer "has agreed to stop popping off" and just try to win a job with the club.

Zimmer has been widely quoted all spring to the effect that he is in the Dodger doghouse and that the Milwaukee Braves "could probably get me for a dozen baseball bats."

"Zimmer has assured me that he will stop popping off," Bavasi commented after a 20-minute talk with the infielder. "We are agreed that Manager Walt Alston will choose his nine best players when it comes time to make out his opening-day lineup."

SANTA CLARA (UPI)—Football will return to Santa Clara next fall, but it will be on a low-pressure "play for fun" basis.

The Rev. James Sweeters, university vice president for student affairs, officially confirmed the Pioneers return to the gridiron Tuesday, and said that Pat Malley would coach. Malley returns to his alma mater after a successful three-year stay at St. Ignatius High School in San Francisco.

Sweeters emphasized that Santa Clara's program is to be "simple and inexpensive. There will be no scholarships, no cross country travel, no solicitation of high school athletes and no spring school training."

Classes are held for the 8 to 12 year bracket from 10 to 11 a.m. and for the 13 to 18 year bracket from 11 until noon.

Sweet Swingers Swinging Sweet Says Andreason

Another large group of Palm Springs area youngsters, from 8 to 12 and 13 to 18, turned out last Saturday at Palm Springs Golf Club for weekly instruction by Dale Andreason, club pro and noted golf teacher.

Present at the classes last Saturday were Mayor Frank Bogert and Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann.

Both were enthusiastic about the sessions and united in saying that the golf lessons provide a wonderful way for the youngsters to use up their excess energy and also learn a game they can play the rest of their lives.

Andreason again emphasized the smooth swing in his lessons. Andreason said, "These Sweet Swingers are really swinging sweet."

Classes are held for the 8 to 12 year bracket from 10 to 11 a.m. and for the 13 to 18 year bracket from 11 until noon.

Up to Doctors Now Says Red

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Fred Schoen-dienst, Milwaukee Braves' star second baseman, continued his battle against tuberculosis today but had a better vantage point, his home.

Schoen-dienst left Mt. St. Rose Tuberculosis Hospital Tuesday after a four-month stay and went home with high hopes—for the distant future.

"I won't be doing much this year," Schoen-dienst said, "but next year I'll be out for spring training."

His big project now is to follow the doctor's orders. "It's up to the doctors from here on," he said.

Story, Meaning of Easter

By LOU CASSELS
United Press International
Jesus of Nazareth was one of thousands of Jewish pilgrims who came to the holy city of Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of the Passover in the spring of the year 30 A.D.

Five days after he arrived, he was seized and slain.

Why?
The young teacher's reputation had reached Jerusalem long before he did. For at least a year, and probably two years, he had been attracting huge crowds in his travels through his home province of Galilee.

THE RELIGIOUS leaders in the capital had heard that he healed the sick, that he associated freely with publicans and sinners, that he broke many of the strict rules they had laid down about such things as fasting and keeping the Sabbath.

Most shocking of all, he claimed the power to forgive sins. This, to the guardians of orthodoxy, was a blasphemous usurpation of the authority of God.

SOON AFTER HE arrived in Jerusalem, Jesus went to the Temple. He found its courtyard filled with the booths of money-changers, pigeon-merchants and other concessionaires who were charging ing fraudulent prices for items which pilgrims required to make the prescribed sacrifices in the Temple.

Seizing a whip of knotted cords, Jesus drove them out and overturned their tables. He said they were turning his Father's house into a den of thieves.

POWERFUL MEMBERS of the religious hierarchy had an interest in the Temple rackets. They were now convinced that this troublemaker had to go.

While they were plotting how to seize him without creating an uproar among the general populace, they were approached by one of Jesus' disciples, a man named Judas Iscariot. For reasons that can only be guessed — perhaps because he was disillusioned with Jesus' refusal to become the political liberator that many devout Jews expected the Messiah to be — Judas offered to betray his master. The chief priests sealed the deal with 30 pieces of silver.

ON THURSDAY evening, Jesus took his disciples to the upper room of a Jerusalem home for what proved to be their last supper together. It was then 24 hours before the start of the Passover Feast.

Mark's Gospel indicates that Jesus, knowing what lay ahead of him the next day, decided to celebrate the Passover one day in advance. But recent discoveries, including the Dead Sea Scrolls, suggest another explanation. It was customary in those days for rabbis and their pupils to meet on the eve of a great feast day to share a simple "fellowship meal" of bread and wine.

JESUS INVESTED this meal with a special significance for his followers, and its re-enactment later became the central feature of Christian worship.

The earliest account of the simple rite which Jesus performed and commended to his disciples is given in the 11th chapter of Paul's first letter to the Corinthians:

"The Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said: 'This is my body which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me.' In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying 'this cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.'

Jesus remained with his disciples in the upper room for several hours. He repeated many of his teachings, urging them to prove their discipleship by loving one another and by serving others with humility and unselfishness. He told them what was going to happen to him, and sought to explain why it was necessary. But they could not understand then, so he gave them a simple prescription of faith that has come ringing down the ages:

"Let not your hearts be troubled; believe in God; believe also in me."

Late that night, Jesus and the 11 disciples still with him went to an olive grove called the Garden of Gethsemane. Drawing a little apart from the rest, Jesus fell down and prayed in words that bear witness to his own tortured humanity, as well as to the spirit of perfect obedience which his church has always regarded as one of the hallmarks of his Divinity.

"Oh my father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me. Nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt."

It was there that Jesus found him, and betrayed him with a kiss on the cheek. Armed men seized him and carried him away to be tried.

Actually, there were two trials, one during the waning hours of the night before an illegal rump session of the Jewish Sanhedrin, and the other early in the morning before the Roman procurator, Pontius Pilate. Both were travesties of justice, the first because the jury had reached a verdict before the prisoner was brought in, and the second because the judge reversed his ruling in order to appease a mob.

SCHOLARS HAVE made many attempts to apportion the blame for Jesus' condemnation between the Pharisees and Pilate. To the modern reader, however, the fact that stands out is that Jesus was condemned by the most respectable elements of society — the duly constituted representatives of established religion and of Roman civilization.

He was rejected, not by the little people of his own nation, but by the custodians of the status quo who rightly regarded him as one who was "turning the world upside down by his teachings." (Tomorrow: The Crucifixion.)

District Expands

DHS Is Growing

The Desert Hot Springs County Water Protection District has proposed to the Board of Supervisors the annexation of seven parcels, each adjacent to boundaries of the district in different areas, and each apparently involving expansion of habitation in the rapidly growing desert area.

The supervisors asked county counsel to prepare necessary papers toward accomplishment of the annexation.

The Desert Hot Springs County Water Protection District map used by the fire protection district to indicate the proposed annexation areas reflects the growth of the area, showing 37 annexations to the water district. This is the second annexation to the more newly organized fire protection district.

A Spanish census in 1799 listed a population of 368 for the "Arkansas District."

Round-The-World Trip

Singapore Is Picturesque, Similar to American City

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is the ninth of a series by Harold N. Beck, Village Resident who formerly owned the Ocean-side daily paper and now owns the Azusa weekly publication, detailing his impressions of an around-the-world tour.

By HAROLD N. BECK

SINGAPORE, Malaya — We crossed the tranquil waters of the Bay of Bengal, passed through the sapphire Strait of Malacca, and entered the picturesque harbor at Singapore.

The harbor is full of ships of many nations, many of them gayly decorated in flags in honor of the visit of Prince Philip, husband of Queen Elizabeth of the British Commonwealth.

We passed the royal yacht, the Britannia, a huge ship nearly as big as our own Bergensfjord. One of the first objectives ashore of some members of our cruise was to try and see the popular prince, but I did not join the mob as I had seen Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip in London in 1952.

IT IS VERY warm in Singapore, as the city is only 85 miles north of the equator. It is always summer here.

The city is more like an American city than any we have thus far seen on this cruise. The buildings are modern and attractive. The streets are wide and clean, the only difference being that there are numerous rickshaws pulled by coolies.

ONE OF THE stops on our sightseeing trip was the Jade Palace, where is housed an exquisite collection of jade. Jade, the Chinese say, is the purest form of stone. It is a symbol of purity and unlike other gems, it is alive. It hasn't the brilliant coldness of a diamond or the scintillating sharpness of an emerald. It is warm and responsive. When it is worn or fondled constantly, it glows with a hidden luster.

This ability to change has given rise to the belief among the Chinese that jade can indicate the health and prospects of the wearer. It is held that a woman whose luck is on the rise will deepen the color of a constantly worn jade ornament into a richer hue.

WE HEARD a great deal of comment about the Chinese New Year, which has just ended. The New Year, to the Chinese, is a time of change. Ever optimistic, if the old year was a bad one, the Chinese feels his luck must change for the better. If his luck was good, the New Year should bring greater prosperity.

Just before the New Year, the businessman settles all debts contracted during the year. Should he begin the New Year while in debt, he is sure he will continue in debt for the rest of the year.

The belief that the way he spends his New Year will shape is way of life for the rest of the year is strangely ingrained in the Chinese. Consequently, he forgets his worries during the New Year period of 15 days, admonishes his children not to cry, tries to be happy and sees to it that all those about him are happy.

SINGAPORE WILL be remembered for its glorious harbor.

By day the ships and flags and emblems of many nations could be seen along the waterfront — several of them being Russian ships.

By night the harbor was a fairyland of twinkling lights, shimmering reflections, glistening ships, and the strange outlines of junks. Tiny sampans were everywhere, dodging sleek liners and giant freighters, giving an eerie atmosphere to one of the world's busiest ports.

Lions to Hear Bill Thompson

Village Lions may not know it, but they've heard William H. "Bill" Thompson many times before.

In fact, Thompson, scheduled to appear before the Lions at 12:15 p.m., tomorrow, in the Chi Chi, has probably been heard by as many people as have, say, President Eisenhower or Billy Graham.

THOMPSON USED to be the voices of "Mr. Wimble" and "Old Timer" for Fibber McGee and Molly and gained even more circulation for his vocal overtones when he appeared on sound track for both "Lady" and the Tramp" and "Peter Pan" for Walt Disney.

The creative speaker, who now works for Union Oil Co. and is a member of the Citizens Advisory Committee on Crime Prevention isn't going to be clowns around for the Lions. His discussion here will be in thorough earnest.

New idea—from Security Bank:

Custom Credit

gives you money
as you need it!

Not just a "one-time" loan—not a credit card plan—but a new way to have ready money to use anywhere, any time you need it.

SIMPLY WRITE A CHECK AGAINST YOUR CUSTOM CREDIT

What is Custom Credit?

It's a way to arrange for an extra cash reserve before you need the money. To use any or all of it, just write a check. And this personal cash reserve costs you nothing—no payments to make—until you use it.

How much money can you get?

You agree upon the amount when you arrange for Custom Credit. Your cash reserve can range up to $2400. Just figure how much you can conveniently repay the Bank each month. Then multiply by 12 or 24 months. The answer is the amount available. Example: if you can pay back $25 a month, your reserve is $300 or $600. And, as you make the payments, you automatically keep increasing your cash reserve.

Can you use your money any time?

Absolutely. You might use just a small portion now, or perhaps not even touch it... just enjoy the good feeling of having extra money on tap, ready "if and when." Or you may want to spend all or most of it right away. Now or later...one big check or many small ones...it's all up to you.

How do you pay back the money?

Remember, you pay nothing until you draw upon your cash reserve. Then payments will be either in the amount agreed upon—or 10% of the outstanding balance, whichever is less (with a minimum of $25). You decide on payment amounts, payment dates. You pay bank interest; and only on the money used, not on unused balance. It's all tailor-made to fit your family finances.

Is Custom Credit different from a personal loan?

Completely different. Your cash reserve is yours to use any time, anywhere, for any reason. No coming in and asking for a loan each time you need extra money. No forms to fill out. No questions to answer. And—each monthly payment builds back your cash supply. You can keep spare money ready and waiting, all the years of your life!

Does this new plan replace credit cards?

Siamese Twin Boys Separated, Fight for Life

LONDON (UPI) — Ten-month-old Siamese twin boys separated by a rare operation struggled for life today in individual hospital cribs. They were joined at the head at birth.

Officials at St. Bartholomew's Hospital in suburban St. Albans said the operation was successful but that the boys were in critical condition.

The twins were Timothy and Jeremy Thackeray, part of triplets born to 37-year-old Mrs. Kathleen Thackeray last May 2. The third child, Peter Martin, was normal.

Their father, Hendon bank manager Reginald Thackeray, said neither he nor his wife was told beforehand of the operation performed by the hospital's neuro-surgical unit.

Among children between the ages of 5 and 14, cancer takes more lives than any other disease. It accounts for one out of every four deaths from disease.

Garden Club Hears Talk by Judge

Judge Hilton McCabe was the principal speaker at the monthly meeting of the Garden Club, Saturday at the home of Mrs. John Meilink.

Plans for the Flower Show which will be held April 11, were discussed and it was decided to invite the general public to display arrangements and specimens. The show will take place in the Desert Museum and rules for entering and classifications of arrangements will be announced later.

Collis Steere announced the Chamber of Commerce will distribute copies of the Garden Book as a part of its promotional activities. The book, a dependable reference book for desert planting is for sale at all book stores.

Gala Party Atmosphere for Birthday Celebration

Torches lit up the driveway for the arriving guests. Lilies, camellias and litized candles in cork holders drifted lazily round the swimming pool and soft balmy breezes rustled through the overhanging trees while strands of organ music enhanced the party atmosphere as guests gathered at the Lillian Drive home of Jessie Baumgardner Saturday evening to wish her a "Happy Birthday."

The color scheme of aqua and white was carried out in the four foot cone of carnations which centered the elaborate buffet table set up outdoors on the awning covered patio.

The beautiful birthday cake made by the Tennis Club was decorated with palm trees and desert scenes.

Among the many guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Larry Cooper, Tom Seals, Howard Matthew, Con Maffie, Bill Dodd, Vic Butera, George Morris, Dewey Carter, Arad Runwell, Bill Kolpacoff, George Liberace, C. C. Hutchens, Paul Burford, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Wall, Dr. and Mrs. Max R. Rubenstein, the Al Bryants of La Jolla and the Mans Kidders of New York. ## Palette Club Gives Paintings

Palette Club members, all students of artist John Morris, have donated around 25 paintings to be sold as a benefit for Desert Circus, it was announced today by co-chairmen Mrs. Clarke Swanson and Mrs. Robert Kenaston.

The paintings will be hung Friday in the Kiva Room corridor at El Mirador, and will be moved to Thunderbird lounge for the night of the Big Top Ball.

Each painting will be sold to the highest bidder, and bids may be dropped into a ballot box near the painting exhibit. There is a minimum of $100 placed on each canvas.

Interesting Guests with Summerbell

The weekend was filled with activity at 215 Desert Braemar, the home of Mrs. W. J. Summerbell. It started with a bridge luncheon for eight on Thursday, those attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Oewiler, Cave, Burley, Hill, Green, Burson and Miss Sebelius, and continued with the arrival of Mrs. Summerbell's daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Florence Crawford and Miss Camille Joy Crawford of South Pasadena; Miss Peggy Tuttle of San Marino and Mrs. Rita Alison of London, England. Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Alison met in Athens, Greece, at the British Embassy when Mrs. Alison was attached to her cousin the Ambassador and his wife, Sir Clifford and Lady Norton, as social and welfare secretary, and Mrs. and Mrs. Kenneth Crawford were attached to E.C.A. in Athens.

Mrs. Alison had an adventurous World War II—escaping in 1940 from France with the missing

English diplomat, Donald Maclean, serving with the exiled Polish forces as a Sgt.-Major for four and one-half years. At the end of the war she became secretary to the British minister's wife in Berne, Switzerland, and the legation organized the first independent mission to take relief to the displaced persons and victims of Belsen, Buchenwald and Dachau. Mrs. Alison led this mission into Germany (mainly in the American zone of occupation) acting as driver, secretary and interpreter.

Later in 1947 she journeyed in a Swiss Red Cross train behind the Iron Curtain into Moscow-dominated Poland, officially as a child welfare worker — unofficially to find relatives or people on the Communist black list.

In 1954 she went to Singapore where she founded and organized the X-Ray Club, affiliated to the Singapore Anti-Tuberculosis Association. She left there in 1957 via Hong Kong, for San Francisco. She returned to England in 1958 for the wedding of her son Michael, who is assistant diplomatic advisor to the Conservative Party. Mrs. Alison has one daughter, Barley, who was in the Free French Resistance during the war, and then became the first English woman diplomat. She is now director of the British publishing firm, Weidenfeld and Nicolson.

Mrs. Alison will be the house guest of Mrs. Crawford for some time. With 26 journeys to the Orient and Australia she prefers California living.

IN THE PLAZA — FA 5-2407 or FA 5-7952

It was continuous entertainment at the Ranch Club Friday night for the big Mardi Gras party, and the costumed guests made it a colorful scene.

The bongo drums were beating in the Corral Room and drew a crowd for cocktails, with Calypso Mac and his band playing and the featured dancer practically going to pieces to the music.

Joyce and Noel Clarke received their guests, wearing Japanese attire, (she with black wig and he with a drooping moustache that lent authority to their kimono costumes.)

In their party were Willie and Trav Rogers (she in flounced red and white Spanish costume and he in Chinese). With them was their daughter Jimmy Bernard and her escort Milt Hicks, wearing matching coolie outfits.

Mrs. Frank Bering wore a dinner gown, but added a wreath of flowers to her hair. Winsome Courtney was in western clothes. Ray Ryan, Bob Six and Mark Kramer joined this group after the welcome party given for the Coloradoans at the Thunderbird home of June and J. Ross Clark.

The Sic Tomacks were dressed like apaches, and Mrs. Gordon Brown was a circus girl and her husband a clown.

The George Irviners were hosting a center-of-the-room party including the Harold Coopers, Bill Bannermans and Billy Malouf and daughter Carol. The Burt McGuirers were with Mrs. Ward McGill and Roy Randolph.

During the evening, the Hal White orchestra with Cleesa Williams, alternated with Calypso Mac and his group with Duke Mitchell also on the program. In the Mardi Gras mood, Duke Mitchell, who was dressed like a medieval Italian dandy, pulled a grotesque anthropoid mask over his head and dueted with pretty Cleesa Williams.

Cup Cakes Are Coming

Your door bell will ring on Saturday, March 28, that is, of course, if it happens to be your lucky day. Two lovely very young teenagers, Carol Montgomery and Patty Pinkerton, have appointed themselves a "committee of two" and have dubbed themselves "Members of the Easter Cup Cakes Committee of the Young Teenagers." These civic-minded youngsters have volunteered a day of their precious Easter Vacation during which time they will call from door to door offering delicious, home-made cup cakes to fortunate housewives.

All proceeds will be donated to the Palm Springs Auxiliary of the Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation of Desert Hot Springs.

New officers elected at the meeting are: Mrs. Allen Slone, president; Mrs. Frank Hilton, 1st vice president; Mrs. Ross Blending, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Bill Bruckner, 3rd vice president; Mrs. Robert Beck, recording secretary; Mrs. Jack Singler, corresponding secretary; Dan Angell, treasurer; Mrs. Maurice Geraghty, treasurer; Wilson Siegel, historian.

It is the woman, perhaps, who runs the show? Inquiring into history's answer to a modern puzzle, John Robert Clarke will explore the 17th Century Comedies of Manners at his next lecture.

"Of Mice and Women," to be given 8 p.m. Thursday at the Desert Inn in Palm Springs.

Through the hilarious comedies and soap operas of Congreve and Colley Cibber, Clarke will show how a change of standards displaced the woman of crisp intelligence and ushered in the era of the elevated mouse.

Noting that there are fashions in women just as in the hats they wear, the lecturer observes that to read history is to watch a peculiar molding process.

A certain kind of woman, Clarke says, "is widely advertised as 'natural' and a whole generation of women rise up and behave that way. Women were praised for their intelligence and control in the 17th Century, and praised for their weakness and addiction to tears in the next."

Clarke, noted Shakespearean instructor and founder of the Adventures in Living Association, a human relations forum now conducting its eighth year of lectures and public discussions in Beverly Hills and San Diego, has appeared before more than a hundred clubs on the west coast during the past year.

Hostesses for Thursday night's lecture, which is open to the public, will be Mrs. Mary Bedford-Jones, Mrs. Gayle Burns, Mrs. Leona Victoria Smith, Mrs. Julia Bachman, and Mrs. Gayle Burnham, it was announced. Purpose of the weekly talks is to develop for discussion the great ideas and personalities of world civilization in terms to today's living.

Other titles and dates are: "Jung and the World of the Unconscious," April 2; "Finding Friends in Belvoir's Tower," April 9; "The Russian Temperament in Literature," April 16; "Schweitzer and the Psychology of Happiness," April 23, and "The Psycho-Makeup of the Interesting Person," April 30.

So that those interested in ideas and discussion can meet one another, there will be a coffee session after each talk, followed by the "Great Circle Discussion" which has been a trademark of the Clarke series in other cities.

Tickets are available at the door or at the Desert Book Shop in the Village.

Come into the old corral and set a spell" was the feeling in the G. Co-hosting were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kennedy of Vancouver, B.C. (he's the noted industrialist and retired president of A. R. Williams Machinery Co.)

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGregor of Victoria, B.C. (he's Vancouver Island manager of the Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada) and is also well known in both Victoria and Vancouver for his exceptional talent in the field of poetry.) Extemporaneous whimsical and humorous poems by McGregor added to the hilarious gaiety of the evening.

Kay is the retired president of the Mid-Western States Greyhound Bus Company and a resident of Minneapolis.

Ramona Outdoor Play To Open April 18 in Bowl

SAN JACINTO — In a natural setting of rustic beauty with snow capped Mount San Jacinto as a backdrop, the early history of California will once more be unfolded as the famed Ramona Outdoor Play opens its 32nd season April 18 and 19 in the Ramona Bowl, historic land mark of the state.

Based on the historic novel of Helen Hunt Jackson, who lived in the San Jacinto Valley while gathering material for her book, telling of the mistreatment of the California Indians by the invading American settlers, this play has become a mecca for thousands of visitors from all parts of the world, and 19, 25 and 26, and May 2 and 3 indicate that upwards of 35,000 persons will visit the San Jacinto Valley and the Ramona Bowl.

Raquel Tejada, 18 year old beauty of La Jolla, the tenth actress to play the role of Ramona and Maurice Jara, of Claremont, as Alessandro will head the cast of 350, all residents of the twin cities of Hemet and San Jacinto.

American families owning life insurance received benefits of $7,255,000,000 in 1958, compared with $6,655,000,000 in 1957.

On March 10, the California Public Utilities Commission handed down a 3-to-2 decision denying, for the most part, our applications to discontinue certain little-used California passenger trains. This decision has caused some misunderstanding of our feelings about passenger train service. THE TRUTH IS...

WE WANT TO RUN PASSENGER TRAINS

We're in the business of running trains—both passenger and freight—and we expect to be running them for a long time to come. We want to make it very clear just how we feel about our passenger service.

1 We want to run passenger trains that you need and use. We welcome passenger business and we hope more people will ride our trains.

2 We want our passenger trains to be good trains. We think our passenger service is as good as any in the country...and we intend to keep it that way.

3 We feel, however, that it is only sensible to discontinue those trains which so few people use that the trains obviously are no longer needed.

ARE WE ACTING IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST?

Yes! Say these Commissioners...

Last week, C. Lyn Fox, President of the California Public Utilities Commission, and Commissioner Matthew J. Dooley, who presided and heard all evidence at the hearings, took sharp issue with many opinions expressed in the March 10 decision of the other three Commissioners.

In their dissenting statement Commissioners Fox and Dooley said that Southern Pacific "... is to be commended rather than condemned for initiating economies designed to reduce its out-of-pocket loss and thus enable it to continue on a reasonable basis a public passenger service which will meet the public need and convenience as demonstrated by present usage."

They further said, "... Southern Pacific ... has met fully the burden of proof necessary to sustain its application...."

"In no instance does the daily average number of through revenue passengers carried between major termini by any one of these six trains equal one bus load. To require applicant to continue to provide railway passenger service for a single bus load of passengers is uneconomical in the extreme."

The dissenting Commissioners pointed out that, although they were keenly aware that a utility incurs an obligation to meet demands of public convenience and necessity, as an economic factor any deficit suffered due to passenger train losses must be subsidized by agricultural, industrial and governmental shippers. They said that in the present case the majority decision "ignores the economics of the situation in general and of California shippers ... in particular."

The two Commissioners further stated that they had "... been unable to find in the record any evidence indicating, in the slightest degree, any lack of integrity in applicant's presentation. In this connection it is significant that the presiding Commissioner ... found no lack of integrity in their development and presentation."

And they concluded, "There comes a time when those charged with the responsibility of regulating public utilities should face up to the facts of change and act with objectivity and reason. That time has arrived in the State of California."

Easter Week Program Offers Fine Fun For Visiting Students

Welcome teenagers — welcome to spend an Easter Week vacation in beautiful Palm Springs which will long be remembered as one of the most pleasant and enjoyable of your student years.

Honoring your annual visit here, and to help you make this year's stay in our sunny desert paradise the finest ever, a full daily program of excellent entertainment and evening social events throughout the entire week has been especially arranged and provided for you.

This year, as an additional new feature, Easter vacation is also being observed simultaneously by Palm Springs schools so that the hundreds of local students are free to act as your hosts and companions in sharing the many community activities.

Co-sponsored by the Recreation Department and Youth Center, various headquarters, meeting places and special services have been made available to all visiting students. And together, these local organizations have prepared a full program of things to do and see including professional baseball games, swimming events, dancing, theatrical presentations, tennis, shuffleboard, horseshoes, picnics, tours, barbecues and many other forms of both indoor and outdoor amusement and recreation. Most of the activities are free of charge and those necessitating admission have held fees to the lowest possible figure.

Palm Springs is proud to play host to the thousands of fine young men and women—the senior citizens of tomorrow—who have chosen this as their favorite place for a student vacation.

May they find their Easter Week stay here a happy, wholesome and an excitingly pleasant example of community cooperation in satisfying their buoyant spirits with real pleasure and lasting enjoyment.

With such an attitude our student guests, too, will find that this is truly the place to have "the most fun under the sun."

The Case of the 'Ugly Americans'

WASHINGTON, D. C.—For foreign aid, which for many years has withstood the attacks of its enemies, is now being chewed to pieces by the behavior of its advocates, a fitting end. The great giveaway is perishing because:

The "Ugly Americans" who personify our bureaucracy in foreign lands have begun to sag at the knees from the weight of their own follies.

PRESIDENT Eisenhower, who does more talking since Secretary Dulles has been hospitalized, has led with his chin by saying that we will never fight a ground war in Europe. The Commander-in-Chief will not hear the end of that one during the House-Senate debate on foreign aid. Obviously, if we are not going to engage the Communist ground forces in Europe (or anywhere else), there is less need than Ike claims for military assistance, the lion's share of our aid.

Acting Secretary of State Christian Herter, a foreign aid pioneer in the House a decade ago, is now an unconscious symbol of the program. Like the program, Mr. Herter is an example of good will, noble experimentalism and the enduring hope for peace. Like the program, he has reached the point in age and health where he is no longer strong enough to make a stout fight for principles which, of themselves, are lacking in the springtime sap of vigor.

MR. HERTER WAS not effective before the House Foreign Affairs Committee, and he had a poor case to plead. If we consider Lend-Lease in 1946 as the genesis of Foreign Aid, no man can logically declare that more money will buy us leadership, friendship, constant allies and peace. From the tenor of the House questioning, it appears that both Democrats and Republicans are fed up on foreign aid and are ready to chop it down, little by little, year by year.

Secretary McElroy tries to justify the military assistance spending by pointing out that our allies on Quemoy stood their ground last summer and did not require the commitment of one American fighting man. But this argument is specious. Only the knowledge that the American forces stood ready to fight held back the Communists. Besides, we did land the Marines in Lebanon; and we have lost Air Force planes in several places where they were "committed" but certainly not supported or avenged.

SIGNIFICANTLY, the Citizens Foreign Aid Committee is proposing to cut the President's $3.9 billion bill approximately in half this year, and to abandon the whole project by gradual and announced reductions in the near future. The central argument of the Committee is for self (not collective) defense of this country, and for a policy of economic and military independence (not interdependence) in the face of present dangers.

Such a plan would force the Free World to develop its own muscles. It would make North America a nuclear-armed watchtower to overlook the Communist fronts in Russia and in China.

This Side of The Sun

'Twas said of March,
Beware the Ides.
But now it's April
Takes our hides.
Then income taxes
Breaketh backs
And all our hunk'll
Go to Uncle.

Pardon me, but as I am sitting here (Sunday) while Mrs. G. is putting the finishing touches on the income tax return, I happened to see the above verse in the P-K Sideline, which is the house magazine of the Peter Kunk Company.

And I thought it was appropriate for this time of the year.

ANOTHER BIT of interesting Sunday reading was the report of a scientific test conducted in New York last week.

Thirty-four gentlemen, variously tattered as science and food editors of publications ranging from newspapers to slick magazines, sat themselves down to eat steaks, free-loaded by a Kansas City laboratory devoted to the advancement of the cattle, or stockyard, industry.

They were to determine which of three cuts of beef labelled only A, B and C were the tastiest.

AND, YOU KNOW what? Twenty-five of them picked out Type B.

They were informed, that the steaks came from steers that had been fed tranquilizing pills.

So that's the answer to the contented cows we hear about in the commercials.

Stolid steers.

I CAN JUST picture the scene on the farm.

When the farmer comes trudging over the lea, a bucket in each hand, one cow isn't going to say to another:

"Here comes old icy fingers again."

Instead, one steer will say to his pals:

"Glory be, here's good old Joe with our happy pills!"

. . . BUT, TO BE serious, the scientists have discovered the way to better beef — so they say.

Here's the pitch.

When calves are weaned they bawl for mama and won't eat for days. Now the farmer gives them a shot of the happiness juice and they forget all about mother love and eat like mad and grow up into contented veal cutlets or U.S. Choice.

Would you mind sliding that Worcestershire down the counter, Bud?

I KNOW A man who carries a pocket-size paper-back copy of Dante's "Inferno" with him at all times.

He's a writer like I'm trying to be and when he scratches notes on bar tabs, backs of menus, etc., he slips them into the book.

So when he gets to his desk, he leafs through it saying?

"Now where in Hell did I put those notes?"

OH, YES, here's something I read in a printing trade magazine: "Things that once brought disgrace, now bring a movie, a book or a TV contract."

A shocking example of arrested cultural development! . . . Adele's been married 20 years and still interested in rushing home to fix dinner for her husband!"

Sammy Davis Better'n Jolson?

NEW YORK — The Beautiful Wife Slagger and I were watching Sammy Davis Jr. at the Copacabana when somebody said: "Sammy's better than Al Jolson ever was."

"I disagree," another customer said. "Sammy's more versatile, but nobody could sing a song like Al Jolson."

We don't expect to settle it here, but we noticed that Sammy's best impersonating Frank Sinatra. "My name is Frank Sinatra and we have some songs we'd like to lay on you," he says — pretending to take a drink first. Still skipping mention of their little non-speaking difference of opinion, Sammy returned to Frank as "my idol and my friend."

In case there gets to be an argument about whether Sammy's as good as Jolson, or as good as Sinatra, we suggest that we'd like to handle it the way Milton Berle did in Miami. He went to the clubs where such was appearing and stated publicly that (a) Sinatra was the greatest living entertainer and (b) that Davis was the greatest living entertainer.

Jackie Gleason was flattered no end to learn that a Philadelphia numbers racketeer used "Jackie Gleason" as a code name, and had Jackie Gleason's picture on his operatives' identification cards. After the chap's arrest, a Philadelphia paper reported, "And A-WAY he went!"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Ex-Mayer Bill O'Dwyer escorted Mayor Wagner's wife to the Harwyn. Marilyn Monroe made up with director Billy Wilder to Chicago to plug "Some Like It Hot". Ernest Hemingway sent an autographed copy of "For Whom the Bell Tolls" to Ell Wallach, who's in the TV'er. Joanne Woodward Newman's doctor told her it'll be another three weeks till she has the baby. Brigitte Bardot's new film contract specifies she won't appear undressed any more.

Maria Schell's husband, director Horst Haehler, flew here to meet her. Comic Phil Foster, reported missing after a London engagement, was found — ill — in a friend's home there. Singer Kathy Barr, now at the Copacabana, was signed to play Lucille Ball's sister in a Desilu TV'er. Dennis Joel, II, quit Ethel Merman's "Gypsy" musical for a role in Betty Hutton's TV series, "Goldie."

A famed comics wife had her maternity nurses nervous — she painted the fingernails of her two-day-old daughter . . . Rosemary Harris, star of "The Disenchanted," almost missed her opening cue — she was in her dressing room watching her goldfish give birth.

EARL'S PEARLS . . .

Most people don't care how much they pay for something, as long as it's not all at once. — Terry Zerb.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH . . .

A B-way character reports she's becoming an author — she's writing notes for people who want to hold up banks.

Comedian Joe E. Lewis returned to N.Y. from Miami where he made a temperance speech. Claiming that Dean Martin drinks a quart each performance, Joe E. warned, "He shouldn't do that—that's the way I started." Joe told Maurice Chevalier he also has a French decoration: a Croix de Drunk, given him for bravery under the weather.

For lady readers who love beefcake, we call attention to Wilson Boy Steve Reeves, weight 203, chest 47½, waist 29, arms 17, calf 18, a San Francisco Muscle Beach product who flexed his biceps on "Bway" in "Kismet" — then went to Rome where he starred in Joe Levine's "Hercules" and is becoming one of the world's great movie stars.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

The Way the Wind Blows

HOLLYWOOD — The Way the Wind Blows: Fox, one of our biggest studios, is now shooting three times more telefilm than feature-movie footage.

Frank Sinatra signed up to play a bit part in a "Thin Man" segment for his buddy Pete Lawford. You'll see The Thin One as a Chinese coolie, pulling the rickshaw of another guest star, J. Carrol ("Charlie Chan") Nash.

BAD NEWS FOR balmy California's hundreds of year-round drive-in theatres: The prices of gas AND chocolate candy are going up.

Just two weeks before she broke her 20th-Fox contract, her bosses at that studio, lot Diana Varsi keep all the loot she made from her "Dingaling Girl" loan out to Playhouse 99—all $10.00 of it. Miss Varsi's "sour-gripes" about "the ways of Hollywood," incidentally, referred to the star treatment she didn't get at 200 until she was Oscar-nominated for "Peyton Place."

WINNING HIS WINGS. Lt. (jg) C. Thomas Luke, USN, has his Navy wings pinned on by his wife, Nancy Jane, at ceremonies at the Naval Air Station at Corpus Christi, Texas. Lt. (jg) Luke is the son of Mrs. Bernice A. Neresesian of 546 Paseo El Mirador. In a note to his mother, Read Admiral J. C. Clifton said, "Your son's accomplishment which undeniably is a credit to him, to you, and to his country, is the fulfillment of successfully meeting the demands of the most exacting and complex aviation training in the world today, and he has won himself the honor of wearing Navy wings which mark the most skilled of military men—The Naval Aviator."

NEW FEE SCHEDULE DECIDED BY CITY

Drafting of a new fee schedule for use of city-owned facilities has been approved by the Parks and Recreation Board, and is no ready for City Council action.

The schedule is expected to be introduced for council action tonight (Wednesday) and basically calls for no charges for government-sponsored uses, 10 per cent of the total tickets sold for civic non-profit uses, and 15 per cent of the gross ticket sales for other use.

MINIMUMS HAVE been set up for each of the uses under the percentage charges, and cover all the facilities of the city including the playhouse, polo clubhouse, baseball field, council chambers, rodeo arena, and include any parts of the facilities such as the dressing rooms, stables and chutes, and pens at the rodeo grounds.

In the use of the rodeo grounds, the percentage is only on the first $5,000, and then the percentage drops to five per cent for all ticket sales over $5,000.

ACCORDING TO the fee schedule there is no charge for tax-supported organizations. Civic groups organized as a non-profit basis are provided the facilities at "cost" while others are required to pay the "rental" price. The charges may be on the percentage of gross receipts for admission charging events, while non-admission events shall pay the maximum charge shown on the fee schedule.

Copies of the schedule will be made available at the office of the Director of Parks and Recreation.

13,720 Persons Use Facilities Of City in Month

Palm Springs Parks and Recreation department today reported that a total of 13,720 persons were "entertained" during the month of February on city facilities.

The largest single attendance record for the month was the Mounted Police Rodeo, which drew a total of 8,000 persons.

A total of 27 different activities, some meeting once, and others more than once a month, use the seven city facilities.

Against the Odds

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (UPI)—You apparently stand a better chance of getting killed in Rhode Island by crossing intersections with the traffic light than against it.

According to the Automobile Club of Rhode Island, 10 per cent of all pedestrians killed at intersections in 1957 were crossing with the signal, while 6 per cent were crossing against it. These figures prove conclusively that it is dangerous to assume that the "go" signal on the traffic light relieves the pedestrian of the need for alertness.

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: Do you believe in "love at first sight"? A friend where I work fixed me up with a fellow she had been talking about for ages. On the first date I felt like I'd known him all my life and he said that's the feeling he had about me. Abby, I'm not cheap, but it was the most natural thing in the world for me to kiss him. I have seen him every night this week and I wonder if it's possible for someone to fall in love this fast? I am 21 and he is 24.

IN LOVE

DEAR IN: Love is a "miracle" whereby two people become magnetized by each other. This can happen in a matter of minutes, but

Careful What You Sign

George Guckenberger, who hasn't been to New York for many years, recently received a summons from the city's Magistrate's Court ordering him to appear within 10 days on a speeding charge, mail a check for $20 or face revocation of his driver's license.

Guckenberger had a ready explanation, though. As registrar of motor vehicles for Hamilton County, Ohio, his name appears on all licenses issued in the county. A resident apparently received a speeding ticket in New York and the policeman simply wrote it out to George Guckenberger.

the true test of its depth and duration can be determined only by time. Make haste slowly.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of an old-maid neighbor of mine who is so man-hungry that she still has her mistletoe up over her front door? Whenever a man passes through she makes a big joke of it and grabs for him and kisses him real good one. She is old enough to know better. Should I tell her that Christmas has passed?

NEXT-DOOR NEIGHBOR

DEAR NEXT: A woman who is this hungry for kisses doesn't care when Christmas is. Just introduce her to a nice congenial gentleman who wouldn't mind playing Santa Claus.

DEAR ABBY: Our son has been overseas for two years. He is coming home soon. He was married just before he left. His wife says we are not to meet him. We plan to stay at home and do as she says, but are we doing right by our son? Your advice will be our decision.

ANXIOUS MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Stay at home and if your son asks you why you didn't meet him—tell him.

DEAR ABBY: I am the mother of a teen-aged girl, whose interests have strayed from school activities to "slumber parties" which are poorly chaperoned. These parties are held at a girl's house. There are 10 or 12 girls in the group. They are visited by anywhere from 12 to 30 boys all evening, until the wee hours of the morn. A party is planned for this Friday night and I told my daughter "NO!" I am being criticized (and even hated) by my own daughter and her friends for sticking to my decision, but I can see nothing but trouble ahead if I don't. Am I too old-fashioned?

JUST A MOTHER

DEAR JUST: You may be criticized (or even "hated" now) but you will be thanked and loved later. Stick to your decision, Mother.

What's wrong with necking and petting? Get ABBY's booklet, "What Every Teenager Wants To Know." Send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, care of this newspaper.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope.

BIG DIFFERENCE

IN WAGONS

BIG DIFFERENCE IN SPACE

Plymouth boasts a 122-inch wheelbase, plus a loading deck almost 10 feet long. You get 95 cubic feet of cargo capacity—more than is available in any other low-price wagon.

BIG DIFFERENCE IN ECONOMY

Plymouth won the Mobilgas Economy Run in its low-price class two years in a row. Only Plymouth offers a Fuel-Saver Choke and 3-stage carburetor. And all Plymouth standard engines run at peak efficiency on regular gas.

BUT... YOU DON'T PAY FOR THE DIFFERENCE

The three top-selling low-price wagons are priced within a few dollars of each other. But only Plymouth gives you the Big Difference for your money...plus high trade-in value.

BIG DIFFERENCE IN FEATURES

Here's a wagon that's really easy to live with! It offers rear-facing seat and roll-down rear window. And, in addition, you get low-extra-cost comfort features like Swivel Seats, push-button heating and transmission. These features—plus progressive styling—help explain the widespread popularity of Plymouth wagons today.

BIG DIFFERENCE IN RIDE AND PERFORMANCE

No other low-price wagon can match Plymouth's Torsion-Aire Ride. And you thrill to V-8 power, including New Golden Commando 395 (available at low extra cost).
